Also I know for a fact he is still posting pictures of the drugs he has for sale on his public Snapchat story. If I somehow get a screenshot of they will that be helpful too.

I hope the probation officer was responsive to our concerns. His cyber bullying, fear tactics, and trying to blackmail Cara with her personal videos must be some kind of violations.

A photograph of a smartphone screen displaying a Snapchat chat conversation with a contact named 'Hulkolas'. The chat history shows several messages. A red bracket highlights two messages: 'Wake him up' and 'And give him water', which are dated 'MARCH 19TH'. Below these, there are several other messages, some in different colors (pink, blue, green) and some with handwritten-style text. The bottom of the screen shows the 'Send a chat' input field and various icons.

His snapchat referring to his message sent to Paul Wiedmaier, “Wake him up And give him water” on March 19, 2019, 13:14 UTC (Local time 9:14am). The victim was already deceased. It’s an effort to manipulate the timeline, cover up the crime, and remove culpability.
