terenzoo	hulkolas	What is that bro acupuncture? I never seen those move like that	Mon Mar 25 05:12:19 UTC 2019
terenzoo	hulkolas	Ahhhh how do you feel after a session. Is it noticeable gradually are can you notice positive effects immediatly? Just interested because I would like to try someday & have never came across anyone who has done. Hope all is well bro üşü	Mon Mar 25 17:55:56 UTC 2019
hulkolas	terenzoo	Yessir. This lady is very good and she told me stories yesterday about a dude who had migraines for 10 years since he was like 13. He had one session on entire bak and body and it went away that moment. He came bak cuz she wanted to do him again the next week to make sure. Still no headache. He did it a couple more times over months. Then he took a year break and came bak and said my head don,Äôt hurt but it feels like almost a headache like it,Äôs gon come bak. They did another session. Never saw him again. Life fixed. Some other lady had bak bone surgery. Pinched some nerve or something. Whole leg painful past the point of morphine and cudnt sleep n shit. She got treatment. It actually went away. Those were a couple success stories I asked her to tell me about. When I did it. U feel like warmth and energy move past barricades cuz these needles like I ur nerves in certain points and it really gets everything coordinated and working together again as one. U feel it while the needles r in a lil more then more but it,Äôs like almost nothing. No pain. Then she pull it out and massage my hand which was numb before from china handcuffs but I like it. I def can,Äôt prove it solved any huge problems for me like those success stories but it,Äôs def possible to work in crazy ways. Lots of ppl use it as last resort cuz they tried everything else and it,Äôs different for everyone but it can solve a lot	Mon Mar 25 20:12:20 UTC 2019
